1	Sep 20, 2010 4:06 PM	The CPLP certification process needs work. The materials are full of typos and the exam itself is too expensive. I am having my two Training Managers "wait it out" for a while until a better system is in place. Not sure if you can do anything about that but the program is more costly than SHRM's and no where near as prestigious.
2	Sep 20, 2010 4:09 PM	Local benchmarking - # of trainers/# of employees; salary and education of trainers; cost of training; budgeted for training; ILT vs WBT; etc.
3	Sep 20, 2010 4:37 PM	Presentations can be hit or miss. Maybe structure meeting for more facilitated networking and less presentations.
4	Sep 20, 2010 5:30 PM	We find the ASTD programs very good when they are on topics that impact the documentation side of training. Keep up the good work!
5	Sep 20, 2010 6:27 PM	I would like to find out more about resources to learn new software programs like Captivate, Lectora, and RoboHelp
6	Sep 20, 2010 6:55 PM	Three sector professional experience to include corporate T&D and professional development, program and curriculum design, academic instructing, trainer training, academic educating, and Ph D mentoring.
7	Sep 20, 2010 7:48 PM	I would like to see more corporate interaction and associates to network with... I seem to come across small business owners... and they don't have the hiring need that some of the larger companies may have. I need to network with training Mangers, Directors & VPs.
8	Sep 20, 2010 11:15 PM	Glad to have joined. Thanks!
9	Sep 21, 2010 10:36 AM	ASTD does a good job!
10	Sep 21, 2010 11:43 AM	I'd like to see the OPTION to not have a lunch at the meeting. I like the idea of a boxed lunch sometimes and a buffet other times. The plated lunch doesn't appeal to me.
11	Sep 21, 2010 2:07 PM	I was disappointed in the chapter's recent election. I nominated an extremely well qualified candidate and was surprised to see that his name was omitted from the ballot. I was also surprised to note that the ballot contained exactly one candidate per office. It was especially confusing that the chapter then urged everyone to come out and vote. Wow! Soviet style electioneering (one candidate, one vote!). This, more than any other reason, is why I don't typically join such inbred organizations as ASTD. I won't be rejoining next year.
12	Sep 21, 2010 6:47 PM	The cost for this years 'big event' is very affordable, thanks. Please start on time, end on time and keep the business to a minimum at the beginning of a program as time away from work is always a factor.
13	Sep 21, 2010 7:27 PM	Overall good value for membership. Thanks for your good service to the training/learning community in Jacksonville. Re. frequency of meetings: I like the monthly meeting opportunities for each of these groups, though it may be only every other meeting, or every third meeting, that has particular relevance to me.
14	Sep 21, 2010 8:45 PM	I go every chance I get it just seems I am in the classroom often and traveling. thank you for everything you do!!!!

15	Sep 24, 2010 1:27 PM	When I have attended meetings this year they have been professional and provided useful information. It would be helpful if attendees were a little more open to people they don't know.
16	Oct 4, 2010 1:38 PM	None at this time
17	Oct 4, 2010 1:41 PM	You're doing a great job! Very committed leadership team.
18	Oct 4, 2010 2:04 PM	I no longer oversee the training function stateside but I do have responsibility for training for foreign, mostly Central America. Would like to see more around global training.
19	Oct 4, 2010 2:33 PM	Meetings and events via the web would be helpful. No cost speaker events would be nice! I would be happy to bring my own lunch or have the event not during lunch time. It gets costly with membership fee and additional fee for programs. I do not attend the "lunch" programs due to the additional cost.
20	Oct 4, 2010 2:36 PM	I am currently looking for a job, a project, or an internship.
21	Oct 4, 2010 2:39 PM	ASTD has done a great job on its programs. I did not answer a lot of questions like meal preference or special interest groups-because the chapter should do what it can afford. Training is a one of many roles I have in my current position.
22	Oct 4, 2010 3:52 PM	The monthly chapter luncheons are slightly more expensive than what I'm comfortable with and my employer doesn't cover the cost. Finding a way to reduce that expense to perhaps $15 for members would cause me to attend more often.
23	Oct 4, 2010 6:26 PM	I have found the meetings and events that I've attended to be interesting, beneficial, and worth my time. Keep up the good work!
24	Oct 4, 2010 6:27 PM	I am a new member and I am buidling my business. Right now I just want to be a member
25	Oct 4, 2010 7:30 PM	Brand new to the chapter- just joined last week. Look forward to opportunities provided by the membership.
26	Oct 4, 2010 8:31 PM	you do an EXCELLENT job, I am proud to be a member!
27	Oct 5, 2010 12:00 PM	Because it was hard to pick one answer to the question - just a comment about the food preference at events: it depends on what/when the event is. Box lunch might be great at a luncheon event, buffet also an option; buffet probably best at breakfast meetings, sit down service would be excellent at an evening or weekend event.
28	Oct 6, 2010 1:25 AM	I will like to learn more about the ASTD
